Interim report

We are naturally curious: what is your first impression of the museum?

Give report points (1-10) for:

The (bus) journey

The weather

The surroundings

The museum building

The reception

Thank you. And what is the first thing you notice about the museum?

Dear art collector,

First of all: welcome to the Kröller-Müller Museum!

In this museum you will discover the collection of Helene Kröller-Müller... and therefore also all the masterpieces that you yourself collected!

These assignment cards zoom in on your own art collection. What is your finest work? Which work doesn't fit so well in your collection after all? You will also find out more about Helene's collection and why Vincent van Gogh was her favourite artist.

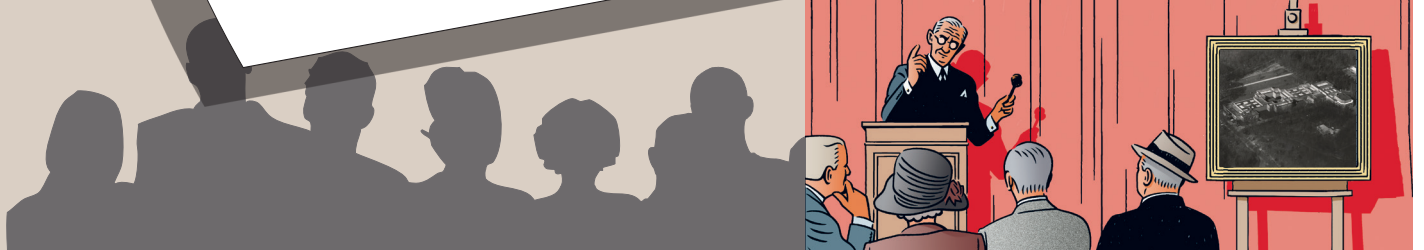

Did you remember to bring a photograph of your collection?

Oh yes, just to let you know: if you want to trade a work, we are naturally open to that.

But for now: have fun and enjoy your (and our) works of art!

Kind regards,

The director and staff of the Kröller-Müller Museum

Where are my MASTERPIECES?

View the museum and find eight works of art from your own collection. Fill in the title cards and draw a line to the space where they hang. Have you found all the works of art? Or is one still missing? Can you think of why this work is not on display?

Choose from the following options and complete the sentence.
